

A full room of Republican and Conservative leaders, Elected Officials, Candidates and Supporters enjoyed a festive and fun filled evening at the Sodus Bay Heights Golf Club. We heard from Congresswoman Claudia Tenney, State Senator Pam Helming, Assemblyman Brian Manktelow & County Officials. Newsmax's Joe Pinion gave a solid and heartfelt keynote address leaving everyone with a "Why couldn't he have beaten Chuck Schumer last November?" NYS would be a much better place. The highlight of the night was our own District Attorney Michael Calarco receiving the annual Bush Award for his continuing support of the Wayne County Conservative Party. When elected six years ago defeating the Republican candidate he showed the relevance of our party said Chairman Mike Garlock. He ended his acceptance with the announcement that as of January 1st he would be stepping down as DA and appointing Assistant DA Christine Callanan as his replacement. He plans to stay on as a part time Assistant DA.
